

Thu 18 Mar

8pm Opening Gala: Samson & Delilah + Q&A with director Warwick Thornton
Extraordinary if unconventional love story set against the backdrop of life in rural Aboriginal communities. AFI winner.

Fri 19 Mar

6pm Van Diemen's Land
7 prisoners escape jail only to find themselves in the far harsher environment of the Australian wilderness...

6.10pm The Boys Are Back
A heartbreaking yet hilarious look at the hardships faced by single parents, starring Clive Owen.

8.30pm ScreenTalk + Samson & Delilah
Extraordinary if unconventional love story set against the backdrop of life in rural Aboriginal communities. AFI winner.

8.45pm The Combination
One of Australia's most talked-about releases. A young man returns from prison only to find his younger brother on the same path towards a life of crime.

Sat 20 Mar

11am Little Big Shots (Family Film Club)
Australia's major annual, travelling children's film festival.

1.30pm Charlie and Boots
Hit Australian comedy about a father and son's road trip to the northern most tip of Australia.

2pm Panel Discussion - State of the Industry

3.50pm My Year Without Sex
Funny and affectionate story charting a year full of huge challenges for a suburban family.

4.15pm Glass: A Portrait of Philip in Twelve Parts
A year in the busy life of minimalist composer Philip Glass - winner of the 2009 AFI Award for Best Documentary.

6.15pm Last Ride
An ex-con and his young son survive by any means necessary whilst on the run from the Law.

8.40pm The Balibo Conspiracy
Anthony LaPaglia stars as a reporter on a quest to reveal the shocking truth in this political thriller.

Sat 20 Mar continued

9pm Road Train
A camping trip in the depths of the outback provides the setting for this terrifying supernatural thriller.

Sun 21 Mar

2.15pm The Pictures that Moved
Alan Anderson's award-winning chronicle of Australian cinema from 1896-1920.

4pm South (Silent Film & Live Music Series)
A tribute to Australian director Frank Hurley with live piano accompaniment by Neil Brand.

4.15pm My Asian Heart
Daring documentary on the travels and extreme reporting of uber-committed photojournalist Philip Blenkinsop.

6pm Blessed
Over the course of a single day, Blessed explores the lives of 6 teenagers and their mothers. With a truly spine-tingling performance from Frances O'Connor.

6.15pm The Marriage of Figaro
Big hairy biker Reg Figaro and his girl Sheree take a ride to the altar - Opera it ain't.

8.40pm The Waiting City
A touching tale of foreign adoption and a couple's hope that adopting a child will heal their troubled relationship.

8.45pm Blind Company
Terminal illness forces a man to confront his past mistakes in this affecting film, set against the backdrop of the Tasmanian Coast.

Mon 22 Mar

6.15pm Subdivision
Changes are afoot in Hervey Bay, where the arrival of a beautiful young executive threatens to rock the local community to its foundations.

6.30pm 5 Lost at Sea
Five teenagers, a camera, a boat and $2,000,000,000 - all components for a filmmaking adventure gone badly awry...

8.30pm Bastardy
A shockingly funny and honest look at the life of the talented but careless Jack Charles.

Mon 22 Mar continued

8.40pm Prime Mover
A man's obsession lands him in a very risky and vulnerable position.

Tue 23 Mar

6pm We're Livin' on Dog Food
Behind the scenes film of Lowenstein's legendary chronicle of the 70s Melbourne punk scene, Dogs In Space.

6.15pm Daybreakers
2019: A plague has transformed the world's population into vampires. With humans (& blood) in short supply, Ethan Hawke investigates...

8pm Dogs in Space
An uplifting and deliciously different movie set during Melbourne's punk rock era.

8.45pm Coffin Rock
A couple's frustrated urge to start a family has horrific consequences in this intense, unsettling thriller.

Wed 24 Mar

6.15pm Cedar Boys
A young Lebanese male desperate for his brother's release from jail succumbs to the dark world of drugs and street crime.

6.45pm The Love Market
An in-depth and fascinating look into the little known world of the hmong tribes girls.

8.40pm Stone Bros.
A spiritual mission to return a sacred stone goes wrong when 187 spliffs are co-opted into the 600km journey.

8.45pm DocSpot: Contact + Q&A
The fascinating account of the shameful story behind the uprooting of the Martu tribe.

Thu 25 Mar

6pm Two Fists, One Heart + Intro by Tim Minchin
A young boxer is torn between finding his own path in life or fulfilling the dreams of his family.

6.30pm The Choir
Through the eyes of the newest recruit to Leeukwop prison Choir, this at times heartbreaking documentary serves as an affirmation of music's redemptive power. AFI winner.

Thu 25 Mar continued

8.30pm A Good Man
Winner of the Best Documentary award at Sydney Film Festival 2009, an uplifting if 'unique' film following a family's attempts to run a legal brothel.

8.45pm TNT Magazine presents: Bran Nue Dae + Intro by Tim Minchin
A vibrant and colourful musical that will leave you humming for days!

Fri 26 Mar

6pm The Road
The highly anticipated adaptation of Cormac McCarthy's bestselling novel, starring Viggo Mortensen.

9pm Tropfest
One of Australia's most iconic cultural events, Tropfest is the largest short film festival in the world.

Sat 27 Mar

1.30pm The Balibo Conspiracy
Anthony LaPaglia stars as a reporter on a quest to reveal the shocking truth in this political thriller.

2.15pm Lucky Country
An uncompromising tale of survival of the fittest in 1902 rural Australia.

4.40pm John Gollings: An Eye for Architecture
A celebration of the life and amazing work of top architectural photographer, John Gollings.

6pm Accidents Happen
A deliciously dark comedy that will delight as well as pull on your heart strings.

Sun 28 Mar

1.45pm Last Ride
An ex-con and his young son survive by any means necessary whilst on the run from the Law.

4.15pm Closing Gala: Beautiful Kate
Powerful drama about a dysfunctional family with masterful direction from first-time director Rachel Ward. AFI winner.