

Barbican Centre Relaxed Cinema Screenings Visual Guide

This is the entrance and exit to Barbican station. When you get off of the train you will leave through here. You must continue straight on, through the crossings that you can see here, and keep walking straight.

---

If you keep walking straight you will walk through this tunnel. This road will take you straight to the entrance of the Barbican Beech Street Cinema.

---

This is what it will look like in the tunnel. It may be quite busy with traffic.

---

This is the first entrance you will come to when you exit the tunnel. You can use this entrance to get to Cinema 2 and Cinema 3.

---

This is the main entrance to Cinema 2 and 3; it is next to the other entrance on the right hand side. You can use both entrances to access the Cinema. Both doors are automatic.

---

This is the bar. You will see this as soon as you walk through the entrance which is closest to the station. You can buy your food and drinks here. The area in front of and around the bar has chairs and tables in it, and there are usually people working on computers there.

It may be quite busy and noisy in the bar area. The coffee machine can be quite loud.

---

In front and behind the bar, there is a seating area with tables that you can use until the film starts. There might be other people sitting here talking, eating or working on a computer.

---

This is a view of the front of the Bar.

---

The women's & men's toilets are situated behind the bar by the entrance to Cinema 2.

---

The hand dryers inside the toilets are very powerful and therefore create a lot of noise. We will have paper towels available if you do not wish to use the hand dryers.

---

There is also an option to use an accessible toilet which are situation next to the Men's & Women's toilets.

---

There is also a Changing Places facility. If you need to use it, please ask a member of staff who can provide you with the code for the door.

---

This is the ticket office, also known as the Box Office. It is next to the bar, to the direct right. You can buy and collect your tickets here, and they can also tell you what time your film can start. If you have any questions, you can ask them.

---

The Barbican hosts will be visible in their uniform. They will take your ticket at the entrance to the cinema and there will be a host present inside the auditorium to answer any questions you may have. This is one of hosts, you will meet others.

---

This is the door that leads to the cinema. The relaxed screenings will mostly take place in Cinema 3 rather than Cinema 2.

---

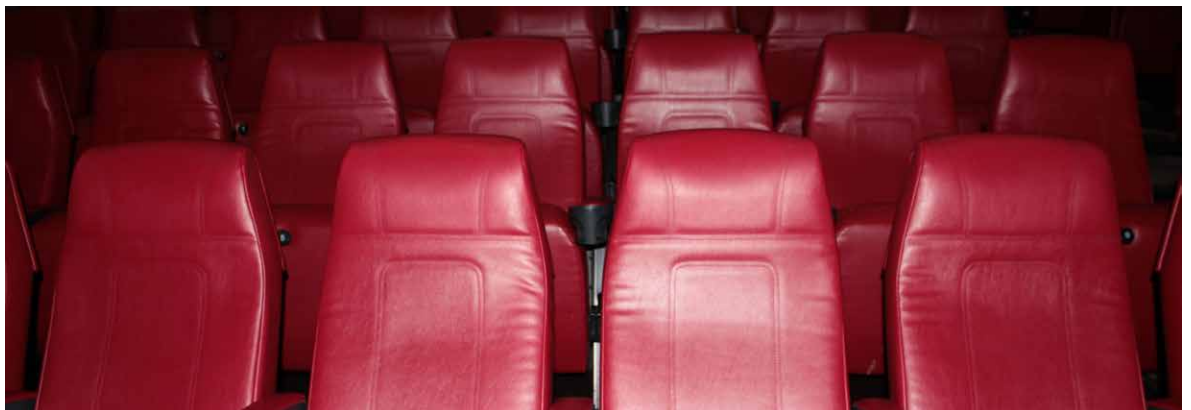

When you enter through the door you can either walk up a few steps or take a ramp that leads to the cinema. There is easy access for wheelchair users.

---

This is the auditorium. The screenings are tailored by having the lights left on low and the volume levels will be a little lower than usual. You are free to sit in whichever seat you would like in the cinema and can come in and out of the cinema at any time. There is easy access here for wheelchair users. If you need any help or have any questions, our staff are trained and ready to help.

---

These are an example of the type of seats you will be sitting in when you watch the film.
