Our Time on Earth

The Curve, 6.30–8.30pm

A journey through immersive, interactive installations and digital works, Our Time on Earth invites visitors to explore Earth as a community to which we all belong.

Postwar Modern: New Art in Britain 1945–1965 Art Gallery 6.30–8.30pm

An ambitious and timely reassessment of art produced in Britain during the twenty years after the Second World War.

What can fungi teach us about care? A collaging workshop with fungi futures

Garden Room, 6–9pm

Join researcher, community gardener, herbalist and forager Maymana Arefin (aka fungi futures) to reflect on soil and land, care and connection. Drop in throughout the evening to sit, breathe, compost, imagine and cut and paste your visions of the future!

Growing Your Own Herbs with Hackney Herbal

Conservatory Well, 6–9pm

Hackney Herbal will be sharing their top tips for growing your own herbs (even if you don't have a garden!).

Postwar Modern: British Art from 1945–65 Curator Talk

Garden Room, 6.30–6.45pm

Head of Visual Arts at the Barbican and Curator of Postwar Modern, Jane Alison joins us for an introductory talk, giving an exclusive insight into the exhibition.

Our Time on Earth Talk

Garden Room, 7.15–7.30pm

Luke Kemp will give an insight into this timely exhibition in this introductory talk.

Gardener's Conservatory Tour

Conservatory, 6–9.30pm

Explore our hidden tropical Oasis in this self-guided tour of the Conservatory, designed by our Head Gardener, Marta Lowcewiz.

Happy Hour

Members' Lounge, 5.30–6.30pm

Escape the hustle and bustle of the Centre and enjoy a drink or light snack in comfort. Between 5.30–6.30pm, enjoy Happy Hour cocktails for £7.
