Getting here

Setting down

For arrival by car (see Car Parking), taxi, minibus or Dial-a-Ride, the most convenient set-down points are the Silk Street entrance for level G or above, and the Stalls Floor roadway for level minus 1 or below.

At Silk Street, a slope (1:15) leads down to automatic doors, which give step-free access across a bridge link to the Ground Floor Foyer (level G) and the main lifts.

For the Stalls Floor, the car park entrance in Silk Street leads down to a ramped zebra crossing and set-down point. The main lifts are through automatic doors on the left, and on the right there is direct access into the Stalls Foyer through two sets of automatic doors.

Underground and bus

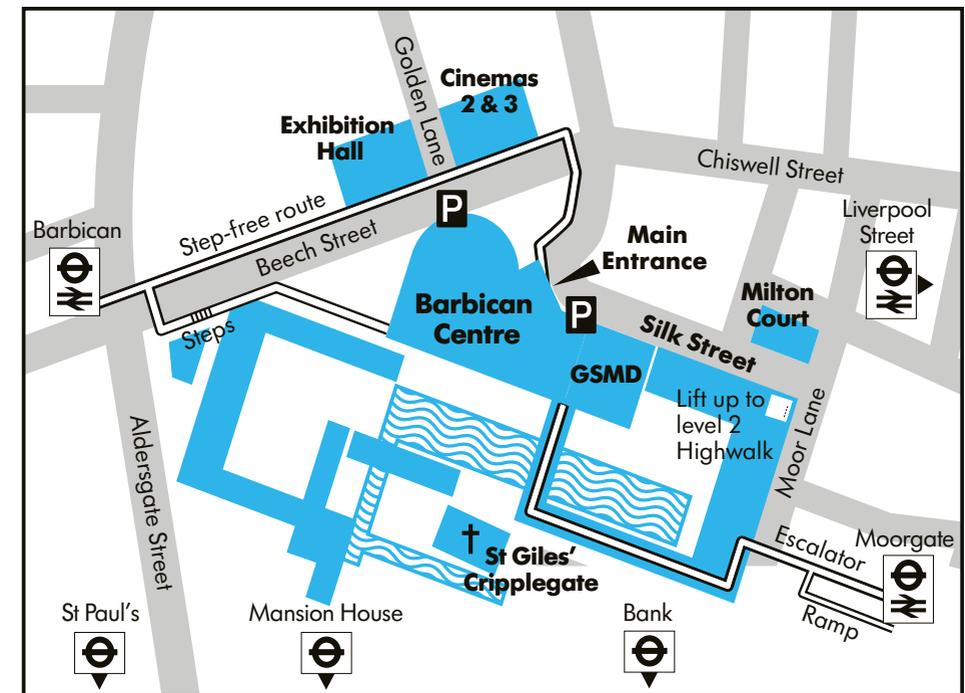

There are no accessible tube stations nearby, and Bank station has lift access to street level from Docklands Light Railway only. Bus route 153 is wheelchair-accessible and runs from Liverpool Street station to Finsbury Park station via Beech Street. Transport for London's enquiry line (020 7222 1234) can advise on accessible routes, or visit www.tfl.gov.uk.

Rail

Liverpool Street station is accessible, but other nearby stations are not.

Photo maps

Photo maps are available on our website showing how to get to the Barbican Centre from local stations. Visit www.barbican.org.uk/visitor-information/access

Concert Hall

On the stalls floor (level minus 1), ground floor (level G) balcony floor (level 1), reached via the main lifts. The level and door you need are printed on your ticket.

Access

See maps overleaf.

Mobility

Spaces for wheelchair users in row U at the rear of the stalls (up to sixteen, depth of row 180cm) and the back row of the circle (four), both with fold-down companion seats. Some seats in row S of the stalls for people with very limited mobility.

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs may be taken into the concert hall where there are a limited number of suitable seats in row G of the stalls. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the cloakroom staff during the performance.

Hearing facility

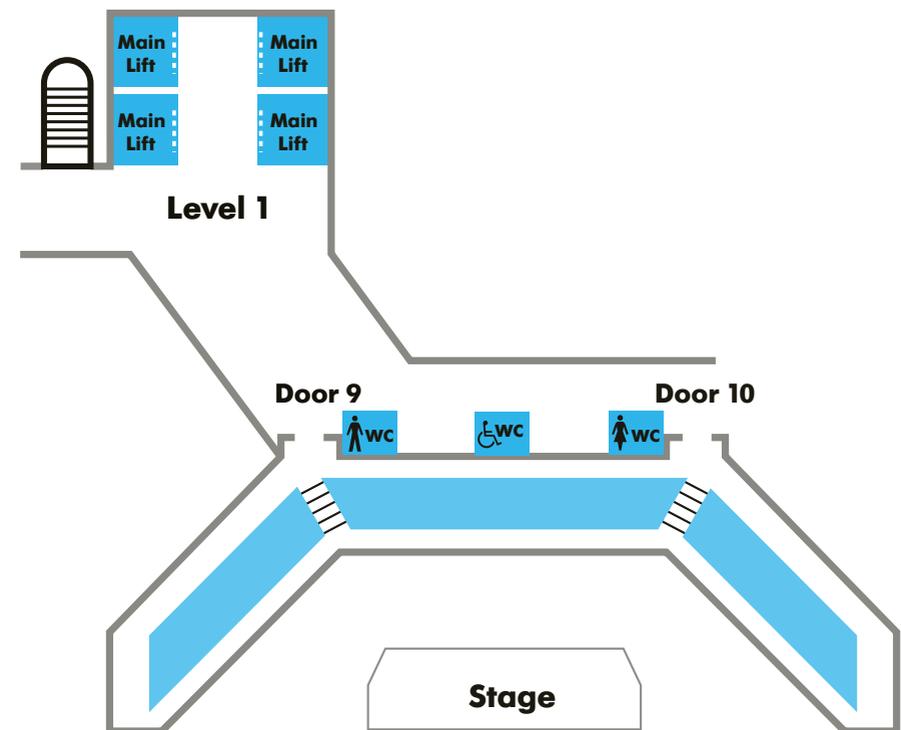

There is an induction loop in the concert hall. You can use this by adjusting your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Free large-print programmes are available for most of our concerts. Please contact access@barbican.org.uk at least a week beforehand, to prebook a large-print programme.

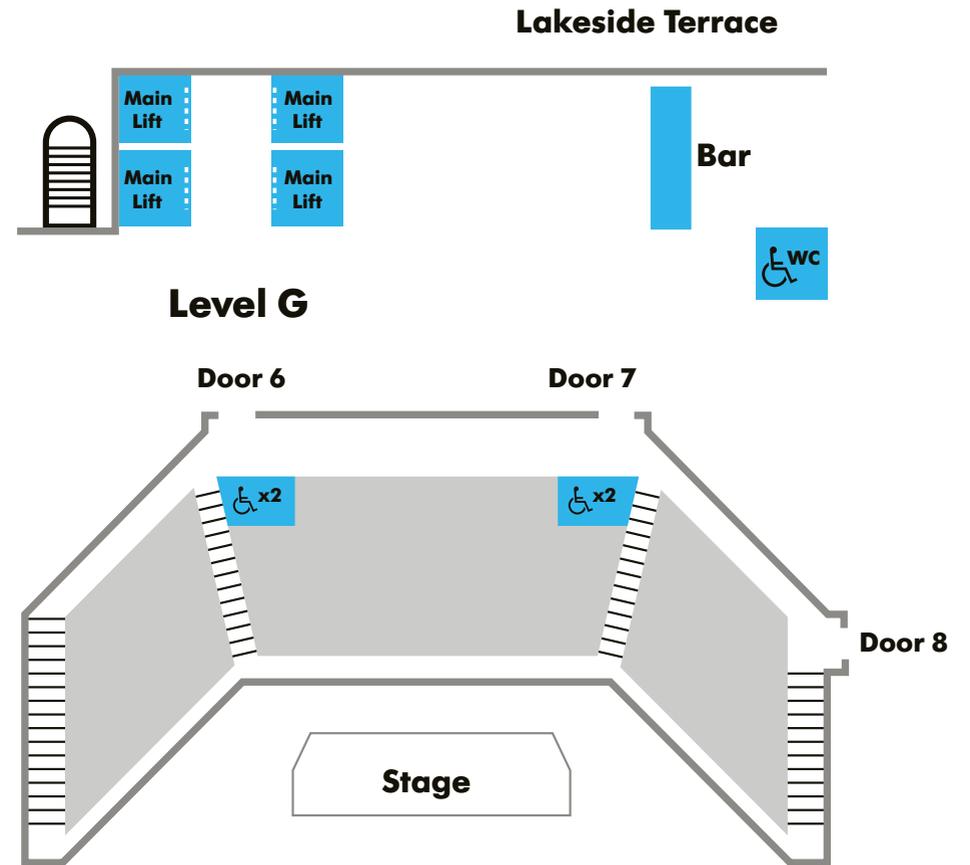

Concert Hall Balcony (Level 1)

Concert Hall Stalls (Level -1)

Concert Hall Circle (Level G)

Theatre

On four tiers connected by the internal theatre lifts. Reached via the main lifts on the stalls floor (level minus 1) and the ground floor (level G). The level and door you need are printed on your ticket.

Access See maps overleaf.

Mobility Spaces for wheelchair users in the rear of the Stalls (four) and row B of the upper circle (four), both with companion seats. Row B is reached via a platform lift, and staff will be happy to help you. Seats in the back row of the Stalls are suitable for people with limited mobility.

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs may be taken into the theatre – please tell us when booking, to ensure your seat has enough space. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the cloakroom staff during the performance.

Amplified sound is provided through a headset that can be collected from the sales kiosk outside the Stalls Right entrance to the theatre

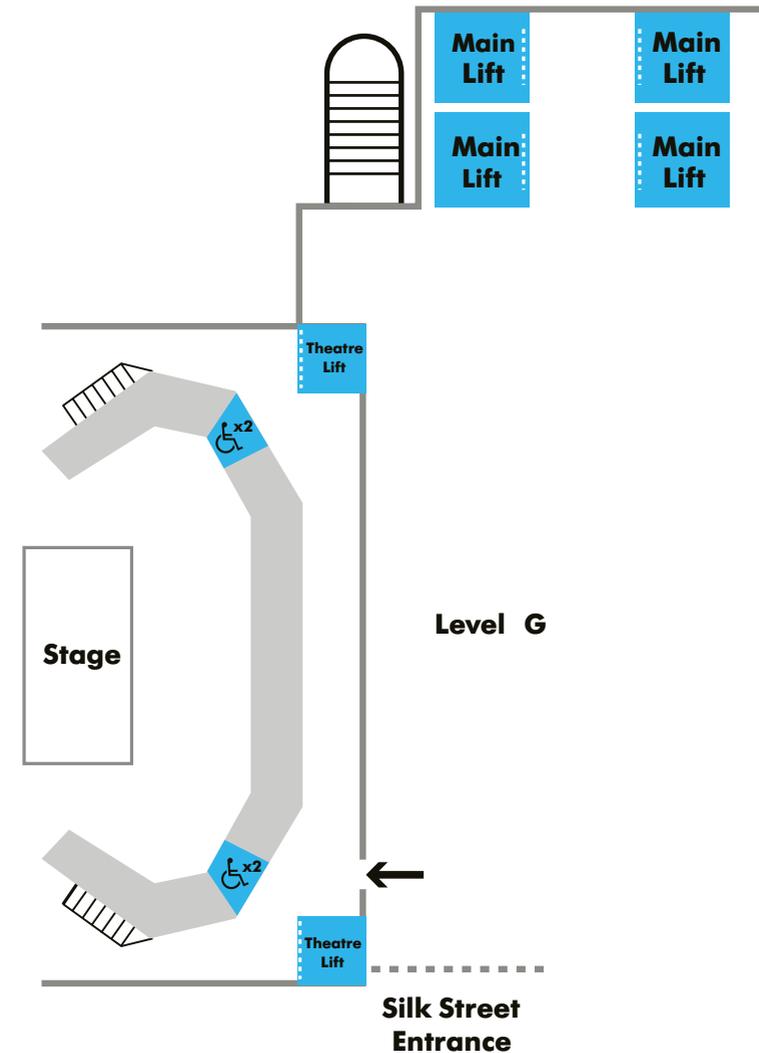

Sign language For our occasional BSL-signed performances. Stalls seats close to the signer are reserved for people with hearing impairments. Please book early and ask for these seats.

Captioned performances display the full text of the play on a screen as the actors speak the words. Seats with the best view of the screen are reserved for people with hearing impairments, so please book early and ask for these seats.

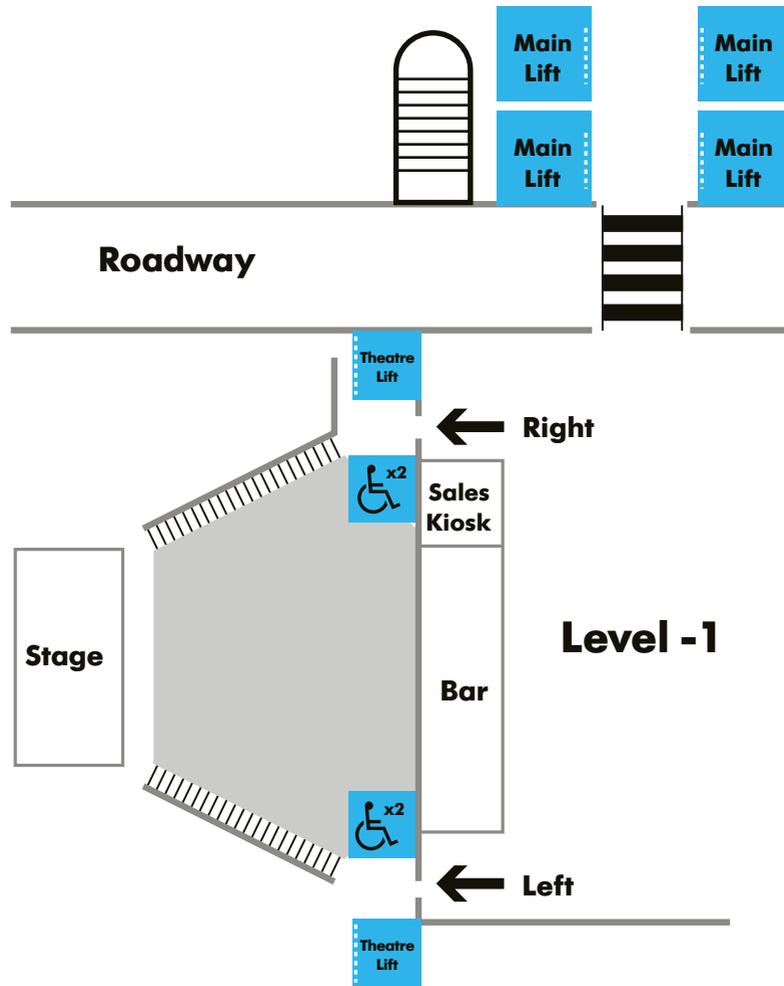

Audio-described performances Headsets are available from the sales kiosk (see above).

Theatre Upper Circle (Level G)

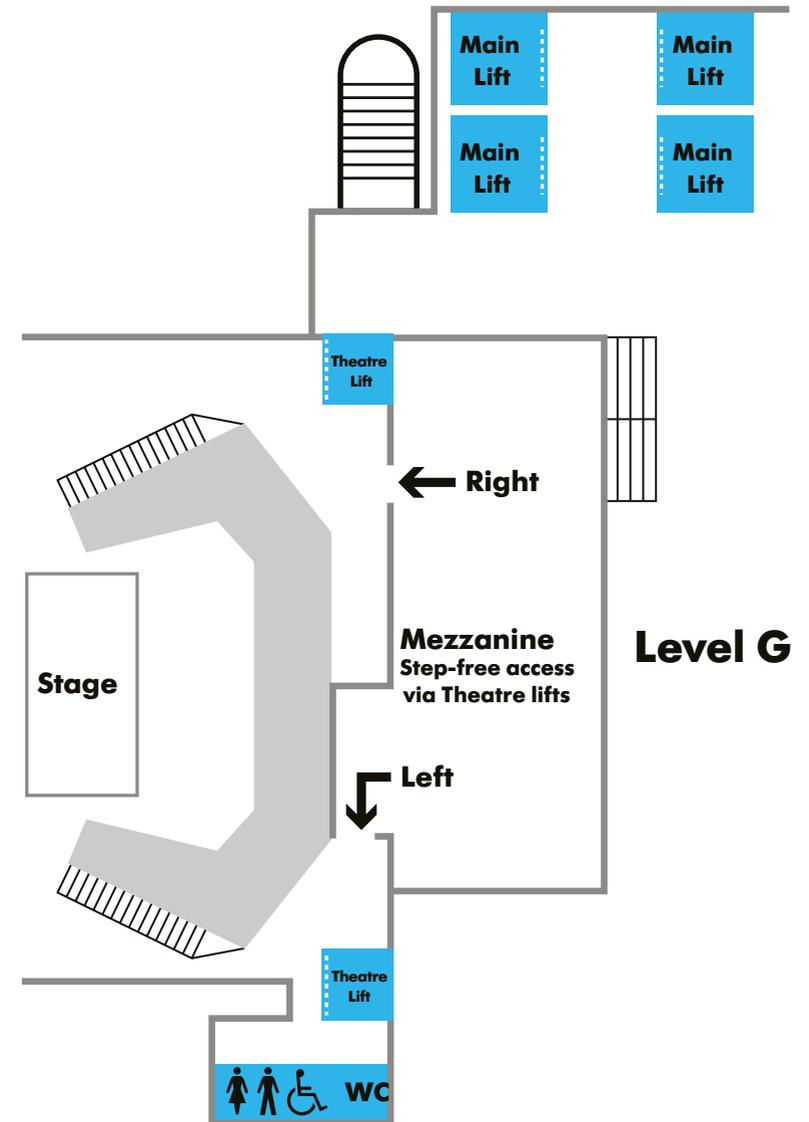

Access up to the Theatre Gallery is by lift from this level

Theatre Stalls (Level -1)

Pit Theatre (Level -2)

On the Pit floor (level minus 2), reached via the main lifts – please note that only two of the four lifts go to this floor.

Access

Step-free access from the Pit floor foyer to any front-row seat. All other seats lead off stepped aisles.

Mobility

Spaces for two wheelchair users in the front row (at stage level), with companion seats. Front row seats are also suitable for people with limited mobility.

Assistance dogs Because space in the auditorium is limited, we recommend that you leave your dog to be cared for by a member of the foyer staff during the performance.

Amplified sound is provided through a headset (see below) for people with impaired hearing.

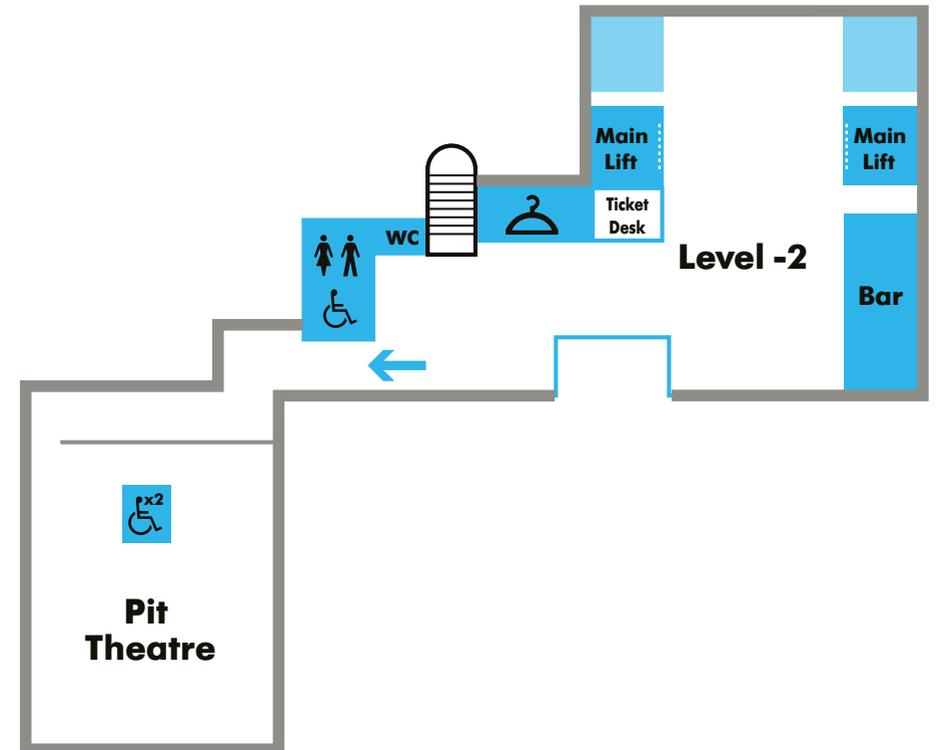

Sign language See Theatre.

Captioned performances See Theatre.

Audio-described performances use a wireless network to relay through a headset (see below) a live description of the scenery, costumes, facial expressions and action.

Headsets are available. You can obtain one 30 minutes before the performance from the programme desk inside the Pit Theatre entrance.

Cinema 1 (Level -2)

On the Pit floor (level minus 2), reached via the main lifts – please note that only two of the four lifts go to this floor. Details of access screenings (audio described and captioned) can be found on our website.

Access

Level access from the Pit floor foyer only to the two boxes (see Mobility below). All other seats lead off stepped aisles.

Mobility

Two boxes at the rear of the auditorium each have space for one wheelchair user and a companion. Please book early and ask for these seats.

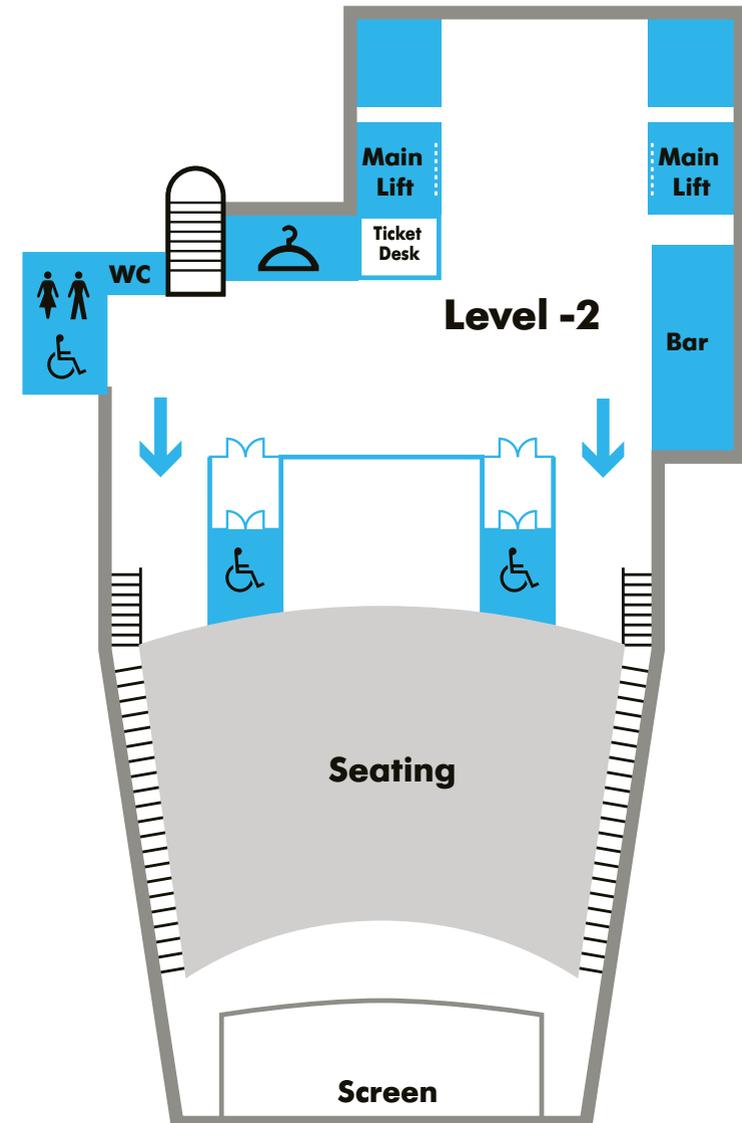

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs may be taken into the cinema – please tell us when booking, to ensure your seat has enough space. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the foyer staff during the performance.

Hearing facility

There is an induction loop in the auditorium. You can use this by adjusting your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Cinemas 2 & 3 (Beech Street)

In 2012 the Barbican Centre opened two new cinemas at the corner of Beech Street, a short walk from the Barbican Centre's main Silk Street entrance.

There are a couple of steep, dropped kerbs and an incline to negotiate between the two sites.

Please check our website for details of access screenings (audio described and captioned). The cinema complex also houses a coffee shop and bar (Benugo) and a restaurant (Côte).

Access

Level access from Beech Street.

Mobility

Each auditorium has three permanent wheelchair spaces (two in the third row and one in the front row) and 153 fixed seats with capacity for a further three spaces in the front row. Access to each auditorium is up a ramp. There are also a number of seats with step-free access.

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs may be taken into the cinema – please tell us when booking to ensure your seat has enough space. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the foyer staff during the performance.

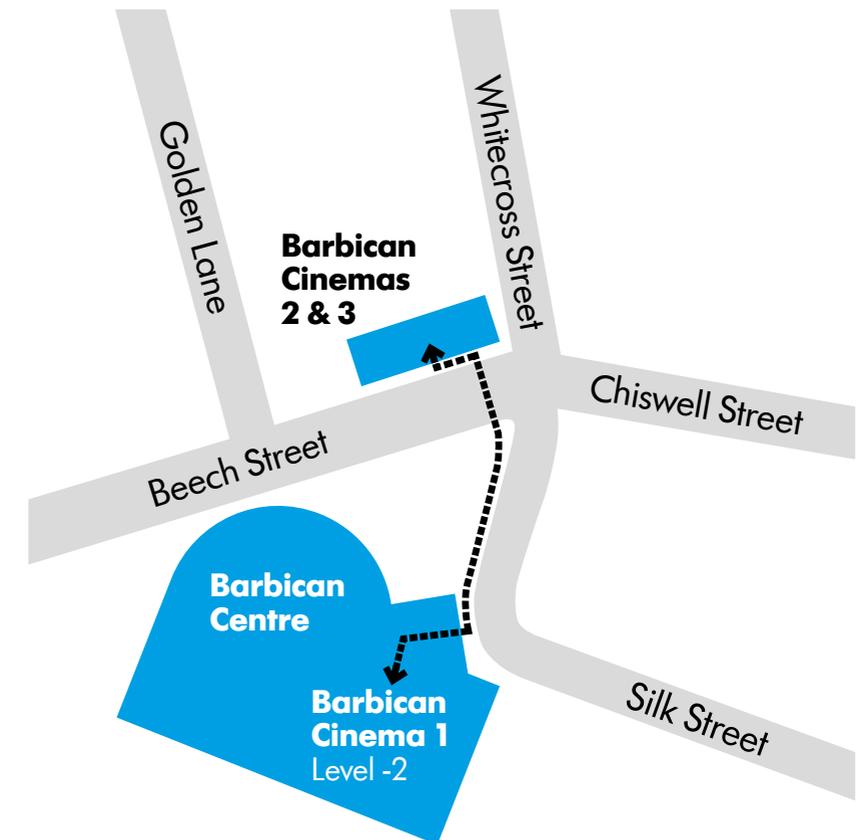

Hearing facility An infrared system for hard of hearing customers is provided in each auditorium; headsets or neck loops can be collected from foyer staff. The ticket desk counter is fitted with an induction loop.

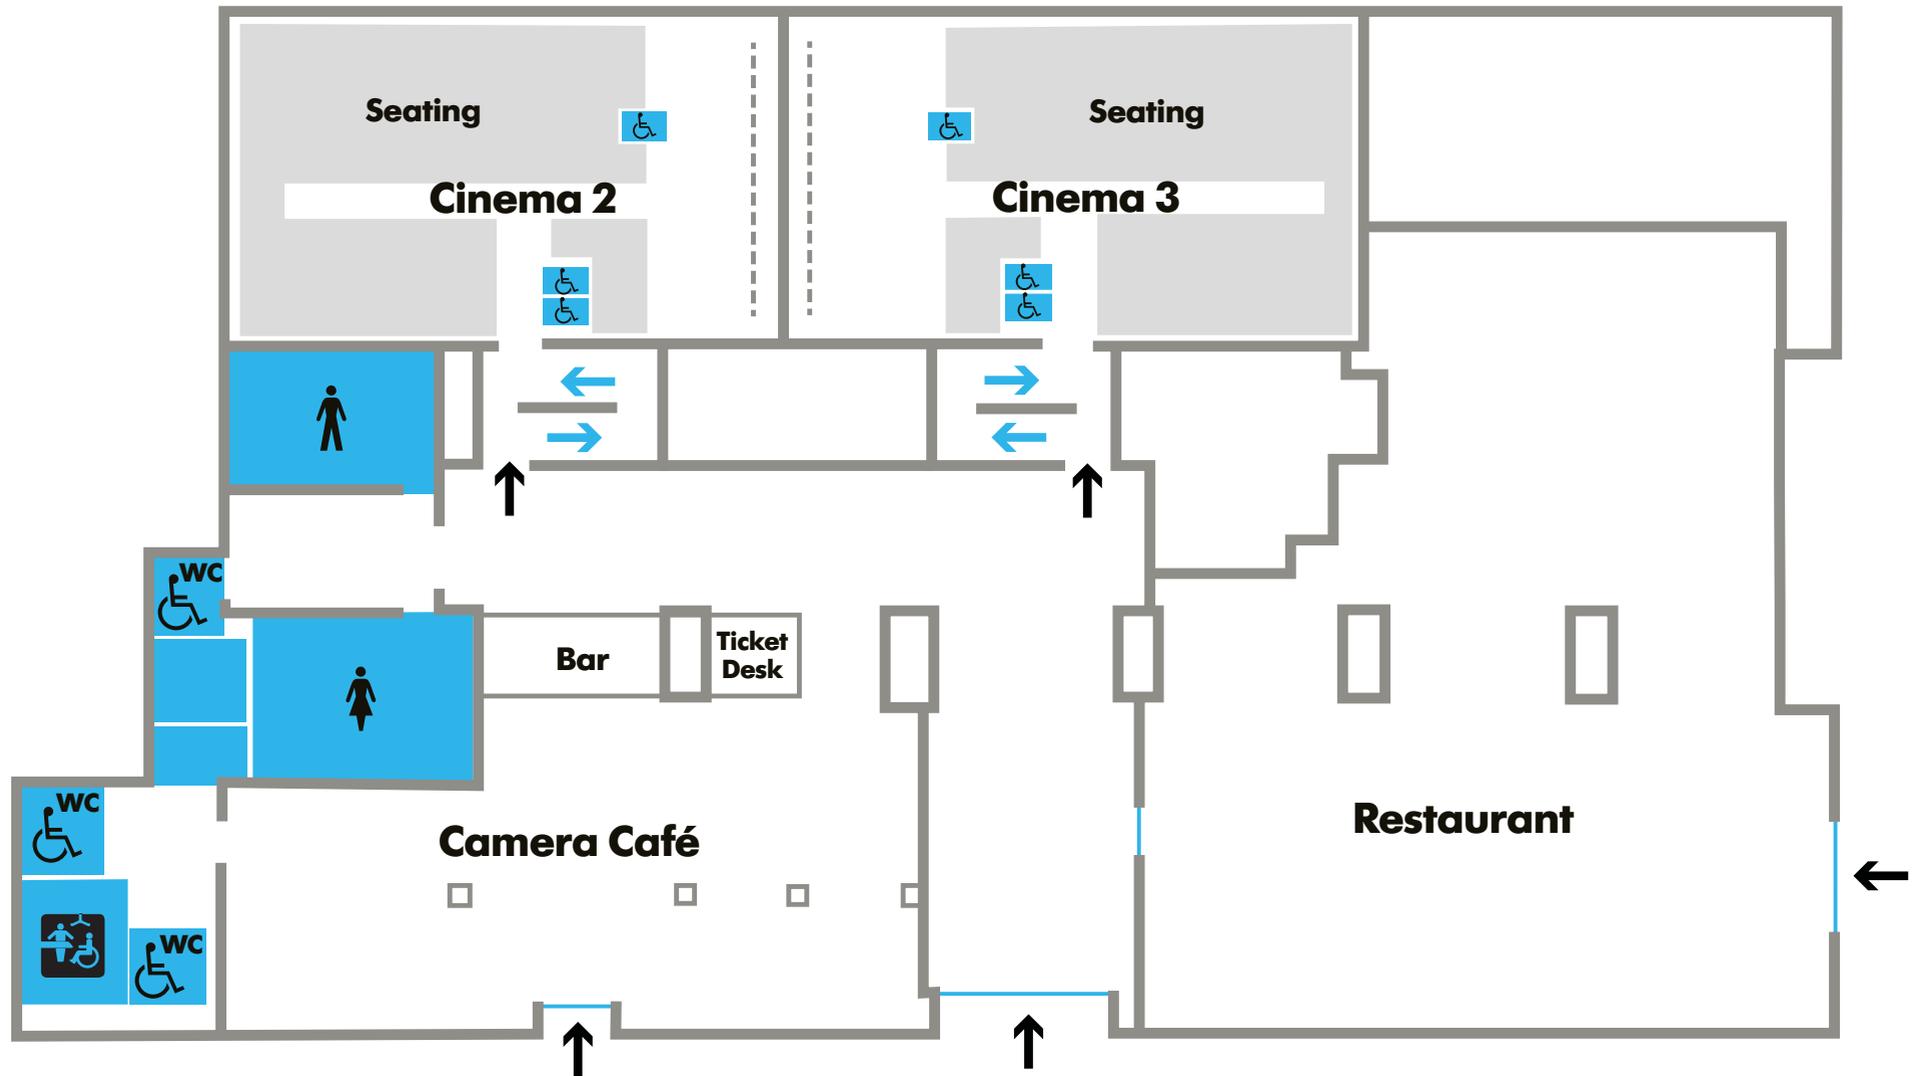

Toilets and Changing Places facility

The cinema complex has three unisex accessible toilets (both left and right transfer) and a Changing Places facility (see map on page 26). The male and female toilets include ambulant disabled cubicles. Please see further information in the Accessible Toilets section. The toilets and Changing Places facility are open from 8am Mon–Fri, 10am Sat–Sun; closing approximately 11pm each day.

Cinemas 2 & 3 (Beech Street)

Art Gallery

On the gallery floor (level 3), reached via the main lifts.

Open Sat–Wed 10am–6pm; Thu–Fri 10am–9pm;
Bank Holidays from 12noon.
These timings are subject to change.

Access Doors normally in open position during exhibition hours. Ticket desk 98cm with a drop section of 76cm. Step-free access on each floor of the Art Gallery.

Mobility The Art Gallery has two levels, linked by a flight of 24 stairs with an intermediate landing. A passenger-operated lift (76 x 110cm) connects the two floors. If you need assistance, staff will be happy to help.

Assistance dogs are welcome. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the Art Gallery staff during your visit.

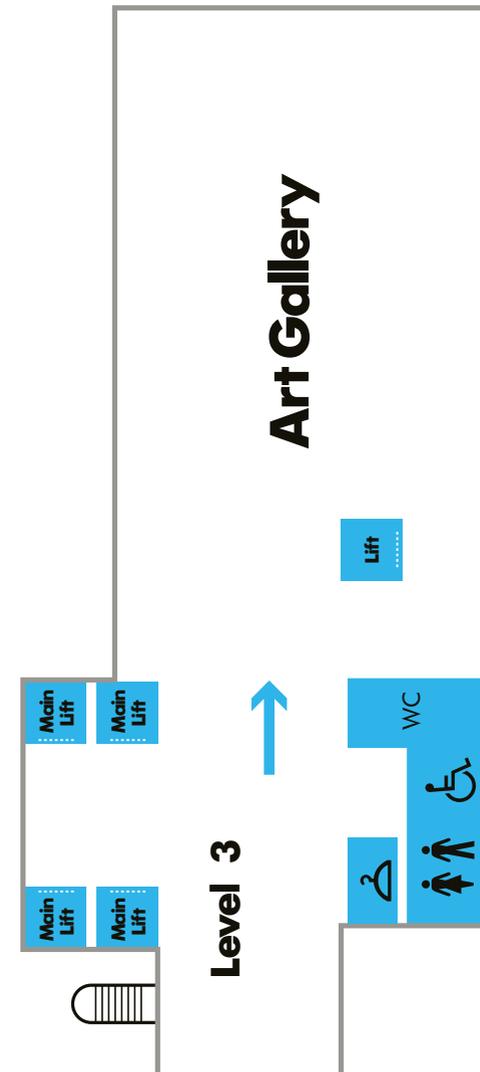

Large-print versions of exhibition information are available from the Art Gallery ticket desk. To request one, please call the Art Gallery on 020 7382 2382 before your visit. An A4 magnifying sheet is also available upon request.

Seating changes depending on exhibition. Portable seating is always available. Please ask a member of staff.

Audio Described Tours The gallery offers audio described tours for visitors with visual impairment. Booking is essential and can be made via email at access@barbican.org.uk or by calling the gallery direct on 020 7382 2382. Please email access@barbican.org.uk if you wish to be contacted about forthcoming tours.

The Curve

On the ground floor (level G), reached via the main lifts or from the Silk Street entrance.

Open

Mon–Sun 11am–8pm.

These timings may be subject to change.

Access

The Curve is just inside the Silk Street entrance.

Access is by platform lift.

You can also enter The Curve from the far end, which has level access. From the Silk Street entrance, go over the bridge and turn right across the ground floor foyer.

Please see map on page 46 for access to the ground floor from Car Park 5.

Mobility

Level access within The Curve.

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs are welcome. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of the gallery staff during your visit.

Large-print versions of exhibition information are available. To request one, please call the Art Gallery on 020 7382 2382 before your visit.

Conservatory & Sculpture Court

On the gallery floor (level 3), reached via the main lifts.

Access

Automatic glass doors (120cm wide) lead outside from the gallery floor and continue down a ramp (1:12). The Conservatory is on your right, entered through double doors (135cm wide). The Sculpture Court is on your left, up three steps or via a ramp.

Mobility

Limited access for wheelchair users and people with restricted mobility due to steps in some areas.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

Conservatory opening hours

Normally on Sunday/public holidays from 12 noon to 5pm or dusk. Please call the Box Office on 020 7638 8891 before your visit, as opening times may vary.

Afternoon Tea

Afternoon Tea is available in the Conservatory on selected dates. Please check our website for details barbican.org.uk/restaurants-bars/afternoon-tea or call the Box Office on 020 7638 8891.

Auditoria 1 & 2 (Level 4)

On the conference floor (level 4), reached via the main lifts – please note that only two of the four lifts go to this floor. Alternatively, to reach level 4 (for the auditoria foyers) or level 5 (for the auditorium), take the Silk Street lift or the car park lifts as appropriate.

Access

There is step-free access from the lifts to the auditoria foyers on level 4, but there are several doors to negotiate. Within each foyer access to the auditorium on level 5 is up a flight of nineteen stairs. Wheelchair users and people with limited mobility should take the nearest lift – foyer staff will be happy to assist you.

Mobility

Each auditorium has space at the back for one wheelchair user and a companion (on level 5). Auditorium 1 also has spaces in the front row for two wheelchair users and companions (on level 4, accessed from the conference floor corridor). Please book early and ask for these seats.

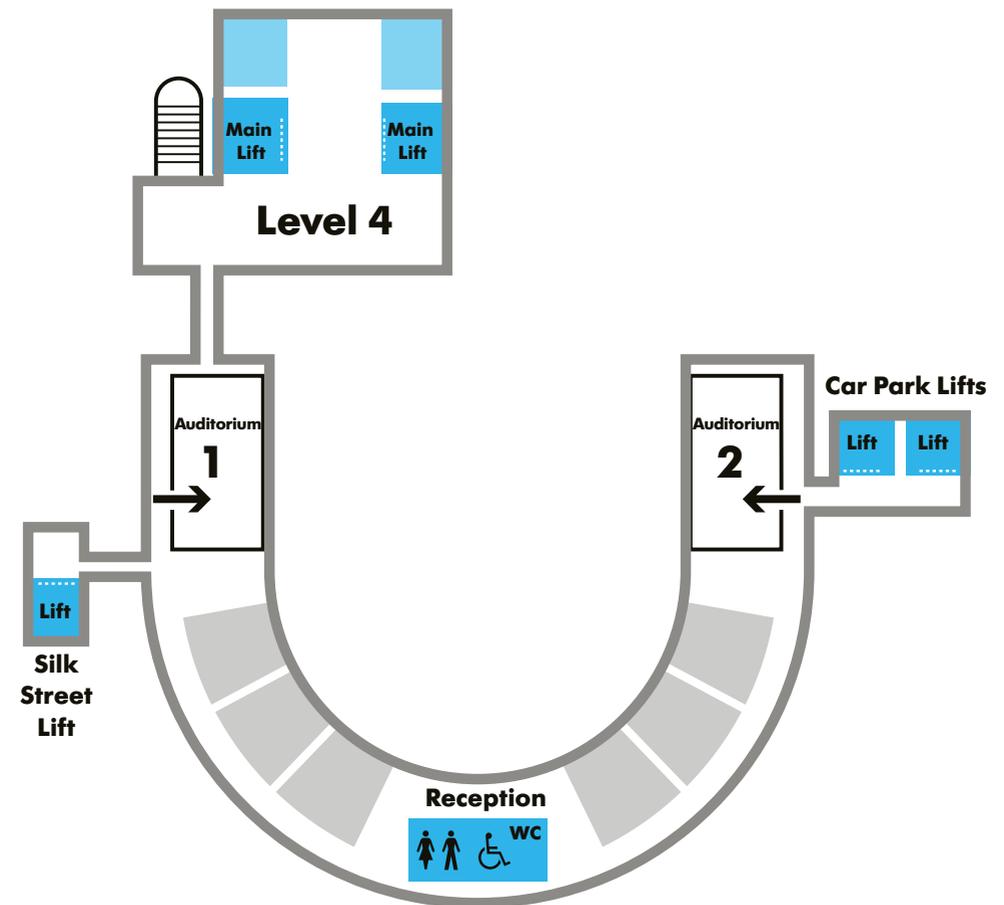

Assistance dogs

Assistance dogs may be taken into the auditoria – please tell us when booking, to ensure your seat has enough space. If you prefer, you may leave your dog with a member of staff during the performance.

Hearing facility

There is an induction loop in each auditorium. You can use this by adjusting your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Conference Rooms (Level 4)

On the conference floor (level 4) the six conference rooms are situated three on either side of Conference Reception.

Access

Conference Reception can be reached in several ways. The routes described below all lead to the Conference floor corridor and round to Conference Reception.

Route 1

From within the Barbican, take the main lifts to the conference floor (level 4) – please note that only two of the four lifts go to this floor.

Route 2

From the Silk Street entrance, take the Silk Street lift to the conference floor (level 4).

Route 3

From Car Park 3 or 5, take the car park lifts to the conference floor (level 4).

Mobility

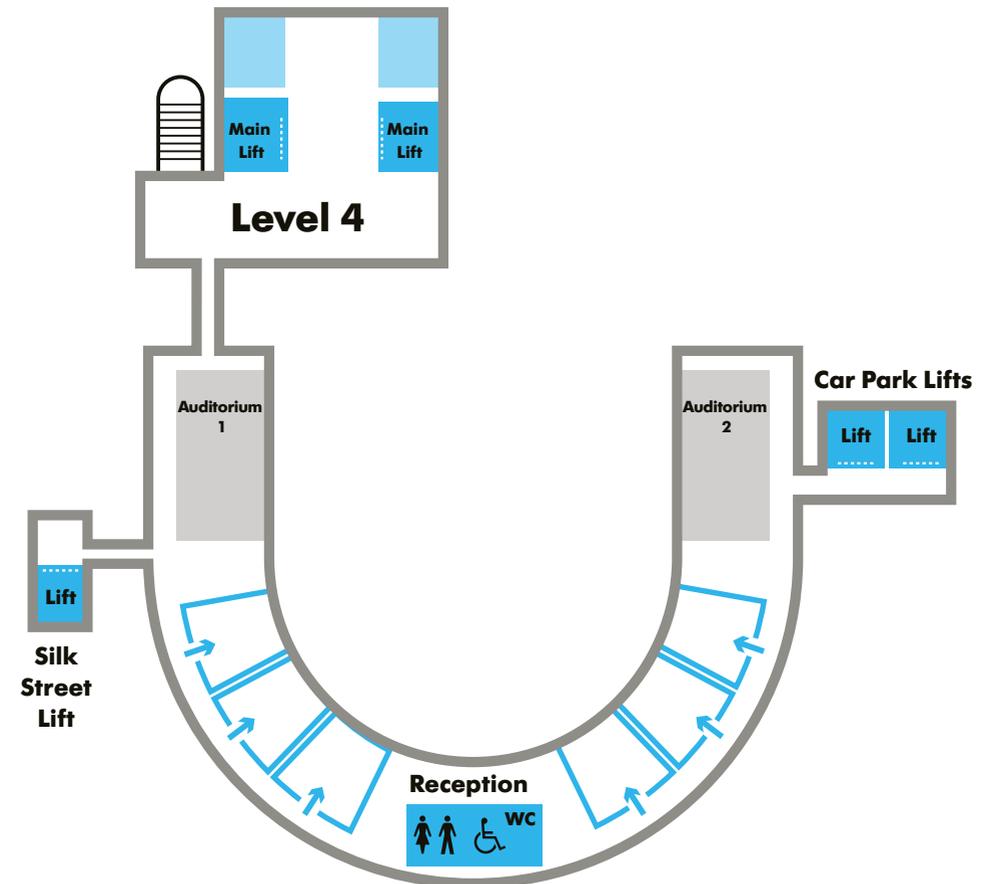

Level access along the conference floor corridor, at Conference Reception, and within the conference rooms.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

A portable induction loop can be provided – please request it in advance.

Exhibition Halls 1 & 2

Located near the main Barbican Centre. Each of the two halls has its own separate entrance on Golden Lane, off Beech Street.

Access

From the Barbican Centre's main entrance in Silk Street, turn left towards Beech Street. A zebra crossing will take you across Beech Street. Continue left for 100 metres to Golden Lane, which has ramped kerbs on both sides.

There is no on-street parking in the area, and you are recommended to use the Barbican Car Parks. It may occasionally be possible to park in the Exhibition Halls unloading area, which is very close to an entrance. Please call the Exhibition Halls Manager on 020 7382 7056 to ask if space is available.

Mobility

Each hall is on two levels, connected by stairs.

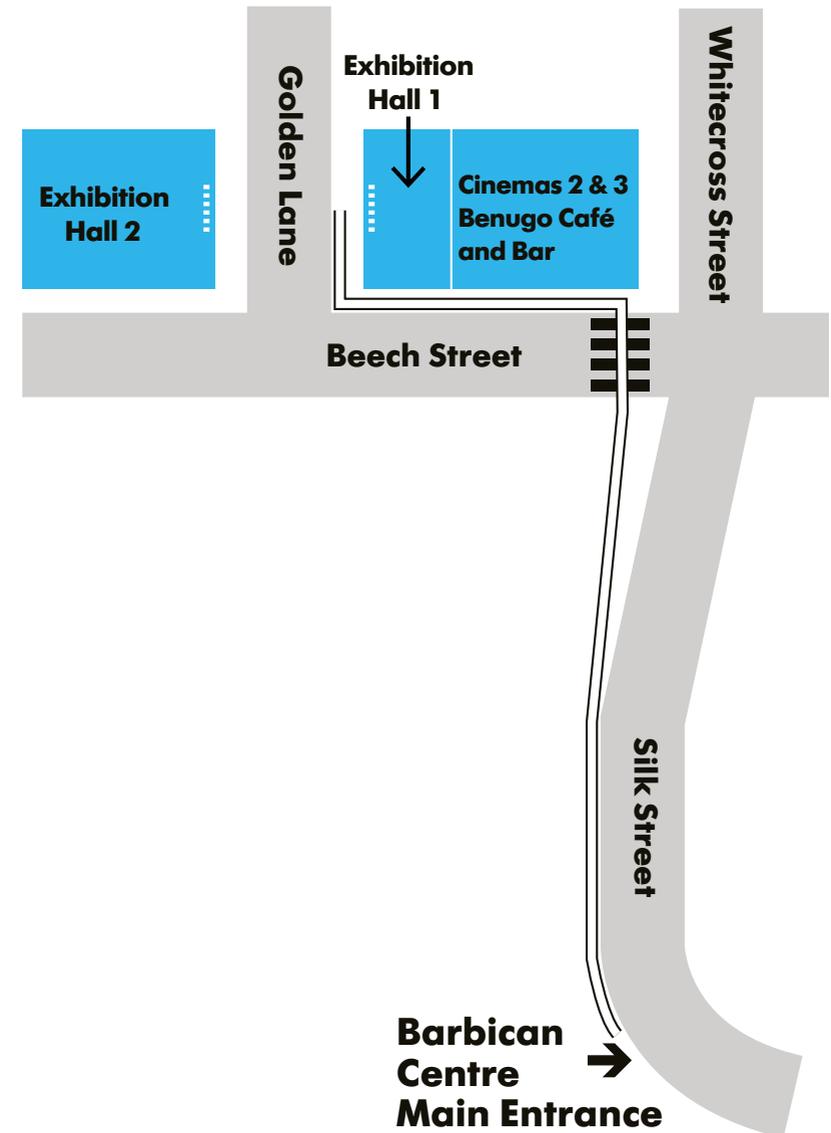

Assistance dogs are welcome.

Accessible toilets

Both halls have a wheelchair-accessible toilet. Both right- and left-hand transfer are available. Sizes vary (minimum dimensions 140cm x 170cm).
